THE way to make the races known,
Dad blame all expenses.
Is put it in a "hand bill" form,
Or chalk it on the fences,
Give the papers all a shake,
And you will surely then,
Get your notice to the eyes.
At least of twenty men.

THE river is still rising.

MR. J. C. OWENS has just received two barges of the best quality of salt.

MR. Ches. Cracraft, of Sharpsburg, is here this week attending the races.

ANDREW HOOD, of Greenup county, is said to be one hundred and fourteen years old.

THE Central Hotel is filled to overflowing. The hotels at Aberdeen are crowded also.

THE wool crop this year is of much better quality and cleaner than it has been for years.

THE court of appeals has ordered that during the remainder of the present term no argument will be heard except in felony cases.

THE steamer Laura L. Davis, makes trips every half hour to the races. Fare 25 cents the round trip. Mr. S. P. Campbell will be on board.

THERE are good reasons for believing that there are many thieves here who have been following the races. It will be well to keep a lookout for them.

A RULE of the trotting association is that the Maysville papers shall not be allowed to circulate on the grounds. This rule was evidently incubated under a seven and a half hat.

THE full programme of each days' races will be found printed in the DAILY BULLETIN. It is the same as that sold at ten cents at the track. The price of the BULLETIN is one cent.

BURNING kerosene oil can be extinguished by throwing milk upon it. A person's first impulse is to throw water, but the oil rises and the only result is to make fire spread.

THE betting last night at the pool room showed in the 2:30 class Red Cross was the favorite, with Mattie Graham second. In the 2:23 class Leontine was the favorite Big John, second choice and Unalala, third choice.

J. H. WEDDING, the East Maysville merchant tailor, has an announcement elsewhere, to which public attention is directed. His business is growing rapidly on account of his satisfactory services and moderate prices. If you wish to save money in providing yourself with clothing give him a call.

THE RACES.

Failure of the Ten-Mile Dash to Materialize.—Miss Burke Arrives and Exhibits Her Horsemanship.—Her Horse's Legs Broken by a Fall.—Florence M. and Anna W. Winners in the 2:40 and 2:20 Classes Respectively

Yesterday, the time fixed for the beginning of the races opened most favorably, with bright sunshine and the air keen and penetrating. The track which lays through a rather sandy district, had dried off well and was in the best condition. The attendance, as expected, was very large, and we must add, a sorely disappointed gathering, owing to the failure of the great event of the day that had been so widely advertised—the ten-mile dash by Miss Nellie Burke, of Nebraska, and Miss Lillian Devere, of California. The latter lady, it is represented, was taken suddenly ill at Louisville on Monday, and telegraphed through Miss Burke, on Tuesday, to have the race postponed. The Secretary of the Trotting Association replied that it was impossible to comply with the request, and directed Miss Burke to come herself from Louisville with horses and make an exhibition on the grounds. Miss Burke answered:

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 15, 1882.
I got your despatch too late to start the horses, but am coming myself. First class horses will answer. I will ride against a gentleman or respectable jockey.

NELLIE BURKE.
In the absence of "a gentleman or respectable jockey," the arrangement was not made and the race did not take place. The Association then by means of hand bills, issued an address of explanation to the public of which the following is the gist:

"As it is impossible to have the ten mile race take place as advertised the Board have declared it off, and deem it proper to lay the above facts before the public without comment, but with the open confession that they greatly regret that such a misfortune should overtake the Association at its first meeting. Miss Burke will arrive to-day, and if possible to arrange it will have the ten mile race go on Friday."

Miss Burke did arrive by the Morning Mail at noon, much to the public relief. She is a pleasant-featured little lady, of vivacious manner, and is apparently on the sunny side of thirty. And we hope we betray no confidence in saying that she is married and the mother of a boy of eleven years. Reared in Nebraska where everybody rides horses, she became an expert equestrienne at an early age. Subsequently she instructed a ladies' riding school at Omaha, and her graceful horsemanship attracting general attraction, she was induced to engage in match racing, and is now acknowledge to be the fastest lady rider in the world. She is credited with riding ten miles at Austin, Texas, in the wonderful time of nineteen minutes and thirty-six seconds.

Miss Burke manifested an earnest desire to comply with all the terms of her contract with the Trotting Association, and in compliance with their wishes in the afternoon gave an exhibition of her style of riding. As her stable had not arrived she used an untrained and vicious horse, the property of Mr. George Wells, of this county. It is proper to say that she was made acquainted with the animal's bad points and offered no objections to using it. Mr. Robert Litter, one of our most expert horsemen, kindly volunteered to accompany Miss Burke over the course. A good start was made. Miss Burke managed her horse easily and gracefully exhibiting her skill with the reins to fine advantage. On the last quarter of the mile, however, her horse broke the tendons of both fore legs and fell. Miss Burke fell with the animal but was quickly upon her feet and escaped all injury except a slightly bruised shoulder.

The first race was for 2:40 horses. Purse $800. First horse, $400, second, $200, third, $120, fourth, $80. In harness, mile heats, best three in five:

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Col. J. C. Craddock, of the Paris Kentuckian, is in the city.

Mrs. Henry Hehman, of Newport, Ky., is visiting relatives in this city.

Hon. S. C. Bascom, of Bath county, is in the city, attending the races.

Hon. T. J. Mullen and wife, of West Union, O., are visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Lulie Soper, of Georgetown, Ky., is visiting the family of Mr. J. M. Stockton.

Mr. R. B. Champe, editor of the Bourbon News, was here yesterday, taking in the races.

Mrs. Mary G. Clark, of Indianapolis, arrived Monday evening, on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Rogers.

Dr. A. G. Browning, of Mt. Olivet, was among the visitors to Maysville this week. We are indebted to him for a call.

Mrs. Thomas Cockrell returned Friday night from a visit to Chillicothe, O. She was accompanied by Mrs. Jas. McKinney.

Miss Minnie Bruce, of Vanceburg, and Misses Mattie and Bal Hayson, are the guests of the family of Mr. Jeff. Henry.

Among the distinguished visitors to the races yesterday were the following named gentlemen from Cincinnati: Commodore C. M. Holloway, Lewis Glenn, Briggs Swift, Charles Tanner, and John A. Townley. They were the guests of Colonel Gus. Simmons, of Aberdeen. They returned home by the Fleetwood last night.

THE Trotting Association prefers to make its announcements by means of the old time hand-bill. Wouldn't it be just as well to go a little further back in the dim past and post written notices at the court house door? If the association wants to be really antique, it should go the whole hog.

WAR DECLARED.

Since 'tis the fashion to advertise,
Physic' law, and merchandise,
And all mechanics of their kind,
Why should a tailor lag behind?

Therefore, J. H. Wedding, is on the spot,
And hopes by his friends not to be forgo,
He will then wait upon those there,
Who wish a garment to prepare.

Thankful for favors, even the least,
Which he does hope will be increased,
Then call as mentioned in the place,
There he'll meet you face to face.

Give him a call, he'll satisfy
The most discerning eye;
He cuts his garments by the square,
With exquisite neatness, taste and care,
